

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : Hon. Dickinson R. Debevoise
v. : Criminal Number 10-372 (DRD)
BRIAN M. CAMPBELL : O R D E R

This matter having been opened to the Court on the joint application of Paul J. Fishman, United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey (Anthony Moscato, Assistant U.S. Attorney and Keith Liddle, Trial Attorney, appearing), and defendant Brian M. Campbell (Michael J. Rogers, Esq. appearing), and good cause having been shown, the Court makes the following findings:

1. The discoverable materials in this matter include voluminous amounts of documents and evidence that will be made available for inspection and discovery;

2. Counsel for the defendant will need additional time to review the discovery in this matter and to prepare motions for filing with the Court.

3. Although the case may not be so unusual or so complex, as those terms are used in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii), failure to grant a continuance in this case, when taken as a whole, would deny counsel for the defendant reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

4. The failure to grant such a continuance in the proceedings would be likely to result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i).

5. The ends of justice served by granting a continuance of the trial date outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

and

IT IS, therefore, on this 5th day of October, 2010,

ORDERED that the trial date in this matter is continued until January 11, 2011, and that the period of time from the date of this Order through and including January 11, 2011 shall be excluded for the purposes of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act; and it is further ORDERED that trial will commence on January 11, 2011, at 9:00 a.m.
